You indicated on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) that you are a dependent student. As a dependent student, you are required to provide parental information on the FAFSA. Although you were able to submit the FAFSA, your application is considered incomplete because no Expected Family Contribution (EFC) could be calculated by the Federal government. To be considered for Federal Title IV financial aid, you must take one of the following actions:

Option A:
Update your FAFSA by providing required parental information at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Your parent must have a PIN to sign the application electronically.

OR

Option B:
Have the following form completed by your parent(s) and return the signed form to the Financial Aid Office. This form will allow you to be considered only for a Federal Stafford Unsubsidized loan, with the maximum amount of $2000 per academic year. You must complete a 2011-2012 Federal Direct Stafford Loan Request Form for loan consideration. You will not be considered for any need-based financial aid. This form cannot be completed for a student who lives in the parent(s)' household, even if the student pays rent to the parent(s).
