

Program Outcomes

Program Name: ASSOCIATE DEGREE NURSING PROGRAM

Division: Health and Wellness

Discipline: Nursing

Contact Person: Lori Wierda

Outcomes

Program satisfaction is a rating of excellent or good regarding their student experience with: quality of instruction, faculty attitude toward students, and faculty competence on annual graduate survey.

The job placement rate is the percentage of graduates employed full or part time in a nursing related position.

The licensure pass rate is the percent of first time takers achieving a passing score on the NCLEX-RN.

The graduation rate is percentage of students receiving an ADN within 2 years of enrolling in NUR 101A full-time track, the percentage of students receiving an ADN within 16 months of enrolling in NT 161, and the percentage of students receiving an ADN within 8 semesters of enrolling in NUR 101A part-time track.