

Program Outcomes

Program Name: PHILOSOPHY

Division: Humanities

Discipline: Philosophy

Contact Person: Raymond Pfeiffer

Outcomes

Learn to apply the methods of philosophy and ethical analysis to their own lives, beliefs and interests; to learn to be self-analyzing, self-questioning, and reflective.

Develop the ability to formulate arguments in support of their own philosophical and ethical opinions and conclusions.

Develop the ability to understand and evaluate arguments that support positions on different sides of philosophical and ethical issues.

Learn to apply the standards of sound reasoning and ethical decision-making.