Honors Student Leadership Award

Application

Due Friday, March 2, 2012

The purpose of this award is to recognize the significant leadership of a student in the Delta College Honors Program. The applicant's activities may have taken place at Delta College or in the community, but must represent leadership rather than mere participation. To be eligible for this award, you must be currently enrolled at Delta College and have earned, or will earn in the current semester, an Honors Certificate. If you have questions about the criteria or qualifications, please contact the Honors Program Office at 989-686-9091.

The recipient is required to attend the Honors Program Ceremony which will be held on Friday, April 20, 2012. The student will receive a certificate and monetary award as well as having their name engraved on the award plaque for display.

Completed application materials must be submitted no later than 4 p.m. Friday, March 2, 2012. A complete application must include all of the requirements listed below. An application without one of these requirements will not be considered.

Applicants will be judged on the following materials:

- Completed application
- Personal statement
- Two letters of recommendation

Personal Statement:

Your typed personal statement (500 - 750 words max.) should discuss the value and meaning of your leadership experiences: How has leadership been meaningful to you? Support your statement with specific examples.

Letters of recommendation:

Two letters of recommendation on letterhead of professional affiliation from faculty or staff at Delta College or individuals in the community (excluding family members) who can attest to leadership activities cited on the application. You must submit these letters with your other application materials. If the letters of recommendation are mailed to the Honors Program office separate from application materials, it is the student's responsibility to make sure all letters are received no later than 4 p.m. Friday, March 2, 2012.

Submit completed application to:

Honors Program
West Courtyard Level
University Center, MI 48710
