

ASSESSMENT OF FAMILIARITY WITH LIBRARY TERMS

Can you match the term with the correct description?

Write the description number next to the correct term below. Updated 2011.

1. Description of a source, which typically includes the title, author, publishing information, etc.
2. Shelving code that keeps books about similar subjects near each other.
3. Database for finding full-text articles in the Detroit News, Grand Rapids Press, Lansing State Journal, and Saginaw News since 2000.
4. An example of a specialized database for finding full-text articles in a journal.
5. Library service for borrowing books and articles Delta does not own.
6. Periodical written to satisfy the interests and reading abilities of the general public.
7. Periodical written by and for scholars and specialists, often reporting research information.
8. Source for finding mostly books, cataloged government documents, DVDs in Delta's Library and area public libraries.
9. Standardized term used to group information logically.
10. Search term that can be retrieved from anywhere in a record (citation) – title, subject, abstract, etc.
11. Styles of writing and citing sources.
12. Comments about a source, usually critical or explanatory.
13. Database that indexes magazines, journals, newspaper articles, reference books, etc. and often provides the full-text of articles.
14. Online catalog to resources cataloged by world libraries, including books, eBooks, and web sites.
15. Paragraph that summarizes the content of a journal or magazine article.
16. A collaborative Web site encyclopedia whose content is created by anyone.
17. The official U.S. gateway to all government information including federal, tribal, state, and local government web pages.
18. An online directory that provides access to evaluated web sites and international newspapers and magazines.

Search.USA.gov

ValCat

Journal

Annotation

Magazine

ipl2

Library of Congress Call Number

FirstSearch - WorldCat

Citation

Subject Heading

Abstract

Keyword

Wikipedia

InfoTrac

MLA or APA

NewsBank – Michigan Newspapers

WilsonWeb – Social Science Full-text

Interlibrary Loan