Delta College Library Mission Statement

The mission of the Delta College Library is to provide instructional and cultural information to students, faculty, staff, and community members and to teach how to locate, evaluate, and use information in order to help develop independent life long learners.

Global Peace Studies

Mission of the Global Peace Studies (GPS) Program:

To increase awareness and deepen knowledge of the various factors that interact to affect global peace and conflict, and educate and develop the skills within our students that they may fulfill their potential for creating positive change at the local, national and international level.

"Be the change you want to see in the world."
