

Internet Sites for Genealogists

Compiled by the Library of Michigan

Library of Michigan Genealogy Collection - common genealogy forms, bibliographies, and 1870 Michigan Census Index.

<http://www.libofmich.lib.mi.us/genealogy/genealogy.html>

Michigan Electronic Library (MEL) genealogy page - basic list of genealogy links.

<http://web.mel.org/viewtopic.jsp?id=1296&pathid=1906>

Ancestry Inc. - access to the subscription databases has been purchased by the Library of Michigan and you can search sites such as PerSI and the Social Security Death Index (SSDI).

<http://www.ancestry.com>

Barrel of Genealogy Links - provides numerous links to genealogical websites.

<http://www.genealogytoday.com/barrel/>

Cyndi's List - This is an excellent starting point. It is a frequently updated, comprehensive collection of Internet genealogy resources.

<http://www.CyndisList.com>

Ellis Island Home Page - official homepage of the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation.

<http://www.ellisland.org>

Family Tree Maker Online - offers several online genealogy classes as well as information about their software products, Online FamilyFinder Index, and articles of interest to researchers.

<http://www.familytreemaker.com>

Federation of Genealogical Societies - homepage of this national organization.

<http://fgs.org>

Genealogy Homepage - good collection of information for the genealogist as well as information about ROOTS-L.

<http://www.genhomepage.com>

National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) genealogy page - lists resources available at the National Archives and how to access the records and interpret them.

<http://www.nara.gov/genealogy/genindex.html>

National Genealogy Society (NGS) - information about this national society. Tips for researchers, informative articles, and access to the society's catalog of holdings make this site a must for the serious genealogist.

<http://www.ngsgenealogy.org>

New England Historic Genealogical Society (NEHGS) - home page of the organization.

<http://www.nehgs.org>

Rootsweb Genealogical Data Cooperative - home of the ROOTS-L genealogy listserv and the Roots Surname List.

<http://www.rootsweb.com>

USGenWeb Project - grassroots project to get genealogy information online for each county in the United States. Each state has a page listing types of records available.

<http://www.usgenweb.com>

Yourfamily.com - does your family have its own website? Check here to find out.

<http://www.yourfamily.com>