Locating Information in Periodicals

Search the following online databases (indexes) to locate journal articles (electronic format) on your topic:

FirstSearch: Medline available from the Delta Library website, (Journals and Magazines) either on campus or remotely. For OFF-Campus access, use your Delta username and password. For help, please call the Reference Desk at (989) 686-9560.

TIP: For your convenience, you may want to find articles that can be found within Delta Library. Medline will do this for you. When you are on the search screen, click within the little white box next to "Subscriptions held by my library (EDK, DELTA COL LIBR)."

InfoTrac: Health Reference Center - Academic available from the Delta Library website (Journals and Magazines), either on campus or remotely. For OFF-Campus access, use your Delta username and password. For help, please call the Reference Desk at (989) 686-9560.

TIP: For your convenience, you can ask InfoTrac to find articles that are full-text. On the search screen, look under the heading of "Limit the results". Click within the little white box next to "to documents with full text."

PubMed is a service of the National Library of Medicine, that provides access to over 11 million MEDLINE citations back to the mid-1960's and additional life science journals. PubMed also links to sites with full-text articles and resources.

TIP: PubMed offers a link to "limit" your search. By clicking on "Limits", you can limit the search to free full-text (entire article) and you can limit to articles presented in English.

The following website will provide links to information on how to cite books and articles in APA Format: Research Tips (scroll down that web page).
