Applied Leadership Principles

Course description. Ethics, motivation, leadership, problem-solving and decision-making skills are requisites to becoming a successful supervisor. This course has two major objectives. The first objective is to present results from each of these fields that have been proven to work. The second objective is to enable students' abilities to apply principles learned from their day-to-day interactions with employees.

Each employee in attendance will receive a course outline, hardcopy of model forms and certificate of attendance.
