

What do I need to bring?

The success of your tax return preparation experience depends on your bringing of all documentation required to prepare your tax return. The following is a general list of very important information for you to bring, if applicable

- Photo ID
- Social Security card for taxpayer, spouse, and all dependents
- All Forms W-2 for wages
- All Forms 1099 (all types) for monies received
- Statement from Department of Human Services (DHS)
- Consumers Energy bill
- Property tax bill or proof of rent paid
- Landlord's name & address
- Last year's tax returns (federal, state, and city)

Other Information specific to your tax position
