TRUSTEE COMMENTS

K. Higgs said that, in his opinion, the hiring of Dr. Thomas Lane is one of the worst examples of political patronage ever seen.

R. E. Selby said that he feels that Dr. Lane is one of the most outstanding hires that Delta College has ever made. Dr. Lane is qualified and the college will benefit as a result of this hire.

T. Kubatzke, who chaired the search committee for the Vice President of Instruction and Learning Services, said that the committee was in no way persuaded to hire a particular candidate. The committee was made up of a cross-section of employees from all ranks (including faculty) across the College. Seventy-five resumes were reviewed. Eight people were interviewed by phone. Four individuals were invited to campus to interview – with two accepting the invitation. The committee also considered the input from employees who participated in the open forum. K. Randolph added that the whole college really made the decision.

L. Myles-Sanders said that in terms of any conflict of interest issues, Dr. Lane properly resigned from the Board before submitting an application for the position of VPILS.

R. Emrich said that he too feels that Dr. Lane will be an excellent administrator at Delta College.

R. Stafford said that he attended both candidate’s onsite interviews. Based on that experience, Mr. Stafford said that there is no doubt in his mind that Dr. Lane is the best person for this job.

Board Chair Houston-Philpot said that she had wanted to bring Dr. Lane to a Board Meeting to thank him for his tenure as a Board Member. Dr. Lane had declined the invitation because he did not want to impact the hiring process in any way. She noted that this is an example of Dr. Lane’s integrity. K. Houston-Philpot thanked T. Kubatzke and the search committee for their work.

K. Higgs said that he did not intend to attack Dr. Lane personally, he just thought that there must be a better candidate for this position on the campus.

R. Stafford said that he received correspondence from recent Delta graduate, Kay Klein, who was successful in finding employment.

R. E. Selby said that he would like to thank the remaining six candidates who applied for the position of Midland Trustee. He said that all the candidates were talented and qualified, and added that he is confident that he committee picked the best candidate to serve on Delta’s Board.

K. Ellison said that she has observed that the Board discusses many spirited issues and added that she is honored to be a part of the Board.
