M. Nash noted (in relation to all the projects that the College is approving this evening) that he thinks that, with Larry’s retirement, this may be a “high hurdle for the new director of facilities.” L. Ramseyer said that he has an excellent staff with architectural and engineering knowledge that have been very involved in the planning and development for these projects. They have been very involved in the construction and completion of Delta’s past major projects and are very capable of playing a big part in implementing these.
President Goodnow reinforced that Larry's leadership in growing his staff and organization on the planning of many of these projects will ensure that they will be implemented.

Motion passed unanimously.

STUDENT SUCCESS: CLOTHES CLOSET

Jonathan Miller, Dean of Students, introduced Lori Ziolkowski, Assistant Professor of Business Management, and Wendy Harness, Delta Alum and Administrative Assistant in Facilities Management.

Lori presented the Delta Clothes Closet. The Closet opened in 2009 with the help of a President’s Innovation Incubator grant. It was developed by students for students. The “store” allows students who need professional attire for a job interview or first day of work to come in and select clothing for free. Donations come from the public and students continue to run the store as part of a service learning project for their MGT 254 course.

Wendy Harness, a former student of Lori’s, talked about the positive experience she had working on this project. She said that there were many great skills including developing promotional materials, working in teams, and management techniques, that she gained by taking part in this valuable project.

R. Emrich said that he is proud that Delta College offers these types of services to meet the needs of our students.

Personnel Report

A complete report of hires, promotions, and separations for the month of October can be found in Board packets this evening.

Information Sharing
• Delta College hosted the Great Lakes Bay Regional Alliance STEM Summit on Friday, October 20. Over 350 educators and business leaders were on our campus to learn about our STEM initiatives and class offerings. Dr. Goodnow thanked all of the staff and faculty members that worked to make this event so successful especially Barb Webb, Pam Clark, and Jennifer Carroll for their expertise in planning and organizing. She said she appreciates all of the extra effort that was made by the Facilities Department, Food Services, and Student Education Services staff to accommodate an event of this magnitude.

• Dr. Goodnow congratulated the Lady Pioneers Soccer Team who placed third in the NJCAA Division 3 National Championship tournament held this past weekend in New York.

• The Bay City Chapter of the NAACP held their annual Freedom Fund Banquet on Sunday, November 12. The theme for the event was, “Uniting for Peace.” The keynote speaker was Congresswoman for the 14th District of Michigan and Congressional Black Caucus Member, Brenda Lawrence. Dr. Goodnow thanked Trustee Karen Lawrence-Webster for attending the banquet.

• The date for the Special Board Meeting has been set for Thursday, February 1, from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and will take place in the Board Room.

• Mike Hansen at MCCA keeps the College informed of the Senate and House bills that could have an impact on education, especially community colleges. Of particular interest are Senate Bills 584-586 that were recently passed by the Senate and are now before the House Judiciary Committee. This will allow individuals who obtain a special endorsement with their concealed pistol license to carry concealed weapons within areas they are currently prohibited, including community college campuses. It would also prohibit colleges from enacting their own firearm policies. Dr. Goodnow said that she would send Trustees additional information and strongly encouraged Trustees to ask our legislators to oppose these bills.

• Dr. Goodnow encouraged all to take a look at this month’s Fantastic Faculty which has been uploaded to BoardBook.

• In folders this evening:
o Copies of pamphlets that were distributed by the Admissions Office at the Great Lakes Bay Regional STEM Summit hosted by Delta College on Friday, October 20.

o Copy of an Employer Talent Pipeline flyer from Corporate Services.

o A folder with recruiting materials created by the Marketing Department and Admissions Office.

o The January-June 2018 LifeLong Learning Catalog.

o A copy of the letter of retirement submitted by Deb Lutz, Vice President of Business and Finance. Dr. Goodnow said that Deb is, what she considers to be, the best VP of Finance that she has ever had the opportunity to work with.

Throughout the years, Deb has done an outstanding job of guiding the development and implementation of our budget. She has lead Delta College in being a “debt-free” college with state-of-the art facilities. And, she has done an excellent job in overseeing our Business Services, Facilities Management, and Human Resources departments as well.

Dr. Goodnow said that Deb has been a trusted advisor to her and she will be missed.

o The latest editions of the Delta Collegiate.

o A Delta College umbrella.
