TRUSTEE COMMENTS

A. Clark had no comments to share this evening.

M. Wood thanked the presenters of both presentations and said it is good to see Delta continuing to support our students in all the different populations that we serve.

M. Wood also congratulated the five adjunct faculty that are now full-time faculty for this semester even though that may require more work for Associate Deans who may have to recruit new adjuncts.

DRAFT

D. Middleton gave kudos to everyone who's helping our students manage life by removing barriers and having them focus on academics.

D. Middleton recognized Marcia Hulett-Jones for her nine years of service and congratulated Alison Ginter on her promotion. She said she's known Alison for a long time and is glad she was promoted.

D. Middleton said that she would be here on Friday for the Carlyon Gym Dedication and is looking forward to all the celebrations right through commencement in December.

M. Rowley had nothing to add to what was already said.

M. Nash was thankful for both presentations tonight. He acknowledged the police officer coins that were given to the Trustees.

A. Thomas said she has a niece that is a dual enrolled student who appreciates the opportunity.

A. Thomas appreciated Dr. Allmendinger and the staff that supported the African Cultural Festival this year.

B. Handley-Miller loved both presentations. She shared that she forgot to mention to Brittany Hodges and Josh Gorm that there's a First Responders and Veterans Resource Fair at Bay City State Park this Sunday.

B. Handley-Miller shared details of her recent vacation to Glacier National Park in Montana. She talked about seeing Blackfoot Community College on the Blackfoot Indian Reservation which has 2,200 students. The average income on the reservation is $20,000. The community college is very important there and a symbol of hope for many. She feels committed to the community college movement and community colleges across the country that represent that kind of hope.

Vice Chair Baldwin gave kudos to the staff for doing a good job of making sure that people feel like they belong. She spends a lot of time at the Downtown Saginaw Center and personally connects students with our staff.

CHAIR COMMENTS

Board Chair Gannon announced that there will be a new Chair starting the first of the year. She said one of their first responsibilities will be to assign Board Members to committees.

Board Chair Gannon said that she talked with Trustee Nash, Chair of the Nominating Committee, who will convene the group soon so the deadline for proposing our slate in December will be met.

She said she is looking forward to Dr. Allmendinger's presentation of her goals at the October Board Meeting.

She mentioned that Dr. Allmendinger and Vice Chair Baldwin will spend time talking about plans for a retreat in 2027. They will ask fellow Trustees for their input.

D R A F T

Board Chair Gannon reminded everyone about the gym dedication on Friday and remarked on how cool the gym looks.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, Board Chair Gannon adjourned the meeting at 8:04pm.
