This Employee Handbook is a guide to all terms and conditions of employment with Delta College for individuals who are classified as employees on assignment in the unit of Workforce Strategies.

You should read this Employee Handbook carefully as it contains important information concerning several aspects of your employment. Moreover, you will be held accountable for complying with its provisions.

As a practical matter, this Employee Handbook cannot contain every rule or policy of Workforce Strategies Delta College. Therefore, you may be given additional materials from time to time regarding Workforce Strategies rules and policies. This Employee Handbook will be updated as necessary to incorporate new or revised policies and procedures. In the event a rule or policy is not included in the Workforce Strategies Employee on Assignment Employee Handbook, it reverts to Delta College's Procedures and Policies.

If you would like more information concerning any of the matters discussed in this Employee Handbook, or if you would like to have any portion of the Employee Handbook explained further, please do not hesitate to contact your supervisor or the Director of Human Resources for assistance.

CONTRACTUAL DISCLAIMER

Unless otherwise stated within the specific provisions of this Employee Handbook and/or in any independent agreements, mutually signed by the parties, this Employee Handbook is not intended to be a contract of employment and that no contract of employment other than “at-will” has been expressed or implied. This Employee Handbook is intended as a general reference guide to procedures that must be followed at Workforce Strategies and the rules and practices governing your employment. This Employee Handbook supersedes all prior practices and policies of Workforce Strategies, oral or written, pertaining to those items covered in this Employee Handbook and rescinds prior policies, procedures, handbooks or general Workforce Strategies’ rules previously in effect that pertain to these policies.

All statements and policies herein are subject to unilateral change in whole or in part by Workforce Strategies at any time. Workforce Strategies retains the right to change, modify, suspend, interpret or cancel in whole or in part any of the published or unpublished personnel policies or procedures of Workforce Strategies without advance notice, in its sole discretion, without having to give cause or justification for consideration to any employee. Recognition of these rights and prerogatives of Workforce Strategies is a term and condition of employment and of continued employment.

The terms of the employment relationship and any provisions of this Employee Handbook may not be revised by oral statements made by supervisors. Modifications to the terms of the employment relationship can only be made by the President of Delta College or his/her designee and those modifications, to be effective, must be in writing and signed by both the employee and the President of Delta College or his/her designee.

Workforce Strategies may set rules and regulations governing the conduct of employees. The rules, however, are not intended to cover all circumstances and do not alter the fact that the employment relationship is terminable at the will of either party. Workforce Strategies has sole discretion and control of all work for all employees including, by way of illustration and not of limitation, the right to hire, assign, suspend, transfer, demote and discharge.

Section 1.03 Anti-Harassment and Complaint Process

1.03 Anti-Harassment and Complaint Process for Equal Opportunities/Equity Issues

Workforce Strategies is governed by the Delta College Grievance/Complaint Procedure for Equal Opportunities/Equity Concerns.

The full process is posted on www.delta.edu on the Equity Office web page at <http://www.delta.edu/equity.aspx>.

A. Policy Against Harassment

Workforce Strategies expressly prohibits any form of unlawful employee harassment based on age, arrest record, color, disability, ethnicity, familial status, gender identity, genetic information, height, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, weight, or status in any group protected by state or federal law. A fundamental policy of Workforce Strategies is that the workplace is for work. Our goal is to provide a workplace free from tensions involving matters which do not relate to the business of Workforce Strategies. In particular, an atmosphere of tension created by non-work related conduct, including ethnic, racial or religious remarks, animosity, or other such conduct, does not belong in our workplace. Harassment includes, without limitation, verbal harassment (epithets, derogatory statements, and slurs), physical harassment (assault, physical interference with normal work or involvement), visual harassment (posters, cartoons, drawings) and innuendo based upon a legally protected class.

Harassment prohibited by this policy applies to the conduct of a supervisor toward a subordinate, an employee toward another employee, a non-employee toward an employee, an employee toward a non-employee who has a business relationship with Workforce Strategies, or an employee toward an applicant for employment. Harassment can apply to conduct outside the workplace as well as at work. Violation of this policy is grounds for discipline, including discharge.

Any employee who has a complaint of harassment by anyone involved in the business relationship, including supervisors, co-workers, clients, vendors, or visitors, must bring the matter to the attention of Workforce Strategies officials. Employees may bring their complaint to their supervisor, Human Resources, to any Director of Workforce Strategies or to Delta College's Equity Officer. If the complaint involves someone in the employee's direct line of command or if the employee is uncomfortable discussing the matter with his or her direct supervisor, the employee must go to another supervisor or to any corporate officer with the complaint.

DELTA COLLEGE WORKFORCE STRATEGIES

1.00 – EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Section 1.03 Anti-Harassment and Complaint Process

B. Sexual Harassment Policy

Workforce Strategies strongly disapproves of and does not tolerate sexual harassment. All employees must avoid offensive or inappropriate sexual behavior at work and are responsible for assuring that the workplace is free from sexual harassment at all times.

Workforce Strategies' policy prohibits (1) unwelcome sexual advances; (2) requests for sexual acts or favors, with or without accompanying promises, threats, or reciprocal favors or actions; and (3) other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature made to an employee or non-employee when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a condition of an individual's employment; submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions; such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance; or such conduct has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Examples of prohibited conduct include, but are not limited to, lewd or sexually suggestive comments; off-color language or jokes of a sexual nature, slurs and other verbal, graphic or physical conduct relating to an individual's gender; or any display of sexually explicit pictures, greeting cards, articles, books, magazines, photos or cartoons.

Sexual harassment prohibited by these policies applies to the conduct of a supervisor toward a subordinate, an employee toward another employee, a non-employee toward an employee or an employee toward a non-employee or an applicant for employment. Sexual harassment can apply to conduct outside the workplace as well as at work. Violation of this policy is grounds for discipline, including discharge.

C. Reporting a Violation of the Equal Employment Opportunities or Harassment Policies/No Retaliation

Any employee who believes that he or she has been subjected to unlawful age, arrest record, color, disability, ethnicity, familial status, gender identity, genetic information, height, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, veteran status, and weight. or any form of discrimination or harassment protected by law and prohibited within these policies, including sexual harassment, or any employee who has observed others being subjected to discrimination or harassment, must notify their manager, supervisor, or the Director of Human Resources, or any Director of Workforce Strategies.

Unlawful harassment and employment discrimination will not be tolerated. Human Resources will actively investigate every complaint of unlawful discrimination and harassment alleged to have been committed by anyone, including any manager, supervisor, employee, client, vendor or visitor. It is the duty of every Workforce Strategies employee to cooperate in any such investigation, and it would constitute a serious infraction of Workforce Strategies' policy to retaliate against or penalize an employee for asserting a claim of unlawful discrimination or harassment or for providing witness testimony. Any employee found to have unlawfully harassed or discriminated against another employee, or non-employee with a business relationship with Workforce Strategies, or to have retaliated against an employee or others for making a complaint of discrimination or harassment or for providing witness testimony will be subject to discipline, up to and including discharge. Any employee found to knowingly have made a bad faith complaint of harassment or discrimination of any kind will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge. Workforce Strategies will keep all investigations confidential to the extent possible under the circumstances. Information will be shared on a need to know basis and facts may need to be disclosed as a part of the investigation and discussions with witnesses.

1.04 – Conflict Resolution / Grievance Procedure

The Conflict Resolution / Grievance Procedure is intended for real disputes that can be adjusted through specific action by the College. Disagreements between staff members that are of a personal nature should be resolved in a different forum.

NOTE: Grievant should be aware that in cases involving possible discrimination, they also have access to the Grievance Procedure for Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity. Grievant may file under either policy but not both. If a grievance involves possible discrimination, staff members are advised to consult with the Delta Equity Officer, Director of Workforce Strategies or the Human Resources Office in deciding which procedure to use.

Preliminaries

Any grievance a staff member or group of staff members (hereafter called the grievant) may have in relations to workload, compensation, promotion procedure, other working conditions at Workforce Strategies or arising from an application or interpretation of the Workforce Strategies' Handbook, will be adjusted as stated in this procedure. Unlawful discrimination with regard to any of these examples or others would be grievable under this procedure. Any adjustment must be consistent with the policies of the Workforce Strategies' Handbook.

Staff members are encouraged to speak to the appropriate supervisor or Human Resources or Equity Officer regarding any grievance they may have in regard to their treatment or conditions of work over which the administration might be expected to have some control. All formal grievances must be filed with fourteen (14) calendar days after occurrence or circumstances on which said grievance is based. The grievance filed will enumerate the occurrence in dispute and will suggest a remedy.

1. Informal Grievance Procedures

The staff member should first discuss the concern with the immediate supervisor, If, for any reason, this proves unsatisfactory or inadequate, the staff member may take the complaint to the Director of Workforce Strategies or the Human Resources Director. If these avenues leave the staff member still feeling s/he has justifiable cause for complaint, the staff member may institute a formal written request for further review of the issue.

2. Formal Grievance Procedures

- a. The staff member will submit the complaint and request for review in writing to the immediate supervisor, the Director of Workforce Strategies and the Human Resources Office.

This request must be made no later than twenty (20) working days following the meeting held under Step b.

Tax withholding is based on the number of dependents an employee claims on the W-4 form that they complete when hired. Each employee is responsible for the accuracy of that form and for updating the information when necessary. To change withholding status, an employee must complete appropriate withholding allowance/exemption documents. The appropriate forms are available from the Payroll Office.

The quality of service rendered by an employee will receive consideration in personnel matters such as promotions, transfers, demotions, terminations, and salary adjustments. Employees are evaluated daily on an informal basis.

Annually, supervisors formally evaluate their employees on or around the end of Workforce Strategies' fiscal year. Supervisors may formally evaluate employee performance at any time, in their sole discretion, to facilitate employee improvement or for any other business reason. Upon completion of the appraisal report, the supervisor will meet with the employee to discuss and review the evaluation and to plan for future performance goals.

Employee evaluations will become a permanent record in the respective Workforce Strategies employee's personnel file.

If an employee is going to be late or absent, the employee must contact his/her immediate supervisor to report an absence and to state the reason for the absence as soon as possible, but not later than one (1) hour before the normal report time. Should circumstances make contact with the supervisor one (1) hour before normal report time impossible, the contact should be made as soon thereafter as possible, with complete information explaining the delay. Absent employees are expected to call in every day of their absence, unless they have previously notified their immediate supervisor in writing of the exact duration of their absence and the absence has been approved.
- B. Schedule changes and/or leave time should be submitted for review and final approval by the appropriate supervisor(s).
- C. Regular attendance is expected. Chronic absenteeism will be evaluated and reviewed for appropriate applicable discipline and/or termination.
- D. Each employee upon returning to work after four (4) or more consecutive days of absence due to illness, or after being released from a hospital, must submit a statement to the Human Resources Office indicating full release to return to work without restrictions, or indicating specific restrictions under which employment could be resumed. Workforce Strategies retains the right to request a doctor's justification for an absence at any time allowable by law when attendance is an issue.

All planned absences, such as vacations, medical and dental appointments, important personal business, etc., must be approved in advance by the employee's immediate supervisor. 2.16 – Job Description Analysis

A. Classification of Positions

All positions will be classified on the basis of duties and responsibilities in accordance with standards established by the Human Resources Office and applicable law.

B. Establishing a New Job Description

The Human Resources Office, in conjunction with the appropriate director or manager, will analyze the requirements, essential functions, and responsibilities of the job, compared to other existing jobs within Workforce Strategies and/or external benchmarking. The analysis will determine the relative value of the job within Workforce Strategies and ensure that all jobs are compensated equitably.

Jobs will be described as they exist and are being performed and will be aligned with applicable factors determined for success.

Changes in a job will be incorporated into the job description when they have been in operation for a period of time sufficient to permit a factual and realistic analysis; however, unusual circumstances may require activation of a job on a temporary prospective basis prior to Human Resources' formal job analysis.

Each job will be assigned an appropriate title and pay grade by the Human Resources Office, in conjunction with the appropriate director or manager, and will be submitted to the Director or designee for final approval.

C. Job Description Review

Each employee's job description is reviewed annually as part of her/his annual performance appraisal review.

6.09 – Consensual Romantic Relationships

Workforce Strategies discourages work-related romantic relationships, especially between supervisors and staff. Accordingly, subordinates involved in a consensual romantic relationship with a supervisor will not be assigned to the same unit. Should a consensual romantic relationship develop after an assignment has been made, either the supervisor or the subordinate will be reassigned to a different unit within Workforce Strategies. It is the responsibility of the supervisor to implement this procedure with notice provided to the Director of Human Resources.

All such arrangements must be pre-approved by the Director.

Workforce Strategies employees are discouraged from dating clients.

Workforce Strategies employees may be required to sign a statement confirming that their work-related romantic relationship with any individual is consensual.

If at any time any consensual romantic relationship interferes with, or disrupts, the work environment, the employee(s) may be faced with the mandatory options of reassignment, discontinuing the relationship, or terminating their employment.

5. Any employee who reports to work in an unfit condition, or during work becomes unfit to work, shall be removed and subject to discipline up to and including discharge. Unfit shall include having any measurable amount of alcohol or illegal drugs, or controlled substances in the employee's system, or any prescribed or over-the-counter medication, or household chemical that is misused or abused. Should it be determined that the employee is or was unfit for work due to a medical condition, the employee will not be subject to discipline, but may be required to provide a doctor's certification prior to returning stating that he/she is capable of performing the duties of his/her job with or without reasonable accommodation.
6. Employees may not operate any Workforce Strategies vehicles while under the influence of drugs or alcohol. Any employee who has been drinking must make arrangements for alternate transportation. Workforce Strategies understands and accepts its right and responsibility to maintain a drug and alcohol free workplace. To ensure that the objectives of our corporate policy are met, Workforce Strategies has implemented this policy with the following elements:

7.00 – EMERGENCY/SAFETY PROCEDURES

Section 7.07 – Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace Policy

1. Employee Awareness

Each department or operating group, in conjunction with the Human Resources Office, will ensure that employees are aware of Workforce Strategies' Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace Policy and will require each employee, as a condition of initial and continuing employment, to certify his/her understanding of the requirements of this policy and acknowledge his/her obligation to be in compliance at all times.

2. Education and Training

At the sole discretion of Workforce Strategies, on a periodic basis, management may require employees to participate in, or be subject to, education and training on the effects of use, misuse, and abuse of alcohol, illegal or controlled substances, and prescription and/or over-the-counter medications. Education and training may be accomplished through, posters, seminars, distribution of educational literature, supervisor training, or any other such means as Workforce Strategies may elect.

3. Testing

If required by a client for on-site employment as a condition of initial and continued employment, Workforce Strategies may require an employee to participate in, and be subject to, drug and/or alcohol testing pursuant to this policy.

4. Counseling and/or Other Treatment Programs

Workforce Strategies encourages employees who acknowledge drug or alcohol abuse or dependence to seek counseling and/or substance abuse treatment, including but not limited to: in or outpatient rehabilitation, detoxification, Narcotics Anonymous (“NA”), Alcoholics Anonymous (“AA”), an employee assistance program (“EAP”), or other counseling or treatment provided through a qualified health care provider. Employees should check their group health insurance summary of benefits for any applicable coverage for such treatment. Any treatment or counseling services not covered through health care insurance will be at the employee’s expense. Any information that the employee or his/or her health care provider provides to Workforce Strategies pursuant to the employee’s authorization shall be maintained in confidence and disclosed on a need-to-know basis only. In Workforce Strategies’ sole discretion, it may require the employee’s participation in a drug rehabilitation or treatment program as follows:

- i. Assistance provided may be in the form of counseling, therapy, detoxification, or immersion in an in or out-patient drug treatment program, at the employee’s expense;

DELTA COLLEGE WORKFORCE STRATEGIES

7.00 – EMERGENCY/SAFETY PROCEDURES

Section 7.07 – Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace Policy

- ii. An employee who refuses participation in rehabilitation or fails to successfully complete the rehabilitation program and remain drug and/or alcohol free will be terminated;
- iii. Referral to an EAP will not be made in a vacuum nor be segregated from disciplinary action. Rehabilitative efforts will require periodic management assessments regarding an employee's progress, and will require the employee to sign a Last Chance Agreement requiring the employee to be drug and/or alcohol free and follow the prescribed treatment program. The employee will also be required to sign an authorization for release of medical information pertaining to the treatment.

Employee participation in a drug or alcohol treatment program does not prohibit Workforce Strategies from disciplining the employee for their current drug or alcohol use, up to and including termination.

5. Notification Requirements

In accordance with the Federal Drug Free Workplace Act, employees must notify Workforce Strategies of any criminal drug statute conviction no later than five (5) days after such conviction. Failure to timely notify Workforce Strategies of a conviction for a criminal drug statute violation, whether or not occurring in the workplace, will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Employees are also required to report any known violations of this Drug and Alcohol Free Workplace policy to management.

- ii. Management will ensure that all employees are given a copy of Workforce Strategies' policy and procedures. HR will also be responsible for obtaining employee certifications and establishing any education and training programs. Additionally, HR will be the central contact point for Workforce Strategies interaction with an EAP, or other health care provider and for maintaining documentation on rehabilitative actions and disciplinary actions regarding drug or alcohol related offenses.

8.00 – DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE

Section 8.01 – Disciplinary Action

Progressive Discipline/Discipline and Discharge

Workforce Strategies has established policies and procedures concerning employee conduct which are deemed necessary to ensure the orderly and efficient operation of Workforce Strategies. The type and severity of the disciplinary action will depend upon the nature and seriousness of the offense, the employee's disciplinary and work history, and any mitigating or aggravating circumstances.

It is the established policy of Workforce Strategies that any conduct, in its view, that interferes with or adversely affects employment is sufficient grounds for disciplinary action ranging from verbal warnings to immediate discharge. Employees based at a client site may be discharged if their performance is not meeting the client's expectations.

Workforce Strategies may impose any of the following types of actions IN ANY ORDER to respond fairly to employee misconduct. Workforce Strategies may take a disciplinary action that is not outlined below and may forego any or all of the steps identified:

1. Verbal Reprimand: The employee's supervisor will discuss the offense with the employee and will document the oral warning with a copy placed in the employee's personnel file.
2. Written Reprimand: A reprimand memo stating the offense and potential action will be prepared by the employee's supervisor and reviewed by the Director of Workforce Strategies or the Human Resources Director. The Supervisor will review the reprimand memo with the employee. The employee may be asked to sign the memo acknowledging that the reprimand has been discussed with him/her. The employee's signature does not indicate whether the employee agrees with the discipline. A copy will be placed in the employee's personnel file.
3. Suspension: A record of the meeting stating the offense and length of suspension will be prepared by the employee's supervisor and reviewed by the Director of Workforce Strategies or the Human Resources Director. The supervisor will review the suspension memo with the employee. The employee may be asked to sign the suspension slip. A copy will be placed in his/her personnel file. The supervisor shall suspend the employee for a specified period of time. Unpaid suspensions for exempt employees will be in complete work week increments, and/or in compliance with applicable department of labor regulations for serious misconduct.
4. Discharge: The employee supervisor will document the offense, review with the Director of Workforce Strategies or The Human Resources Director, and provide written notice of the decision to the employee.
